

17. McDowell United Methodist Church—The church was built in 1875; however, as early as 1840 families gathered in homes and schools to hold Methodist services. The original church building was covered in an adobe material, but in 1956 when an educational addition was completed, three sides of the church were covered in a brick veneer.