

21. McDowell Presbyterian Church—Built in 1856 on land donated by the Sitlingtons, the church served as a hospital during the Battle of McDowell. Its pews were broken up and used as firewood. If you look closely, you will see initials and other marks left on the bricks by soldiers.