

4. Peter Hull House—Built as early as 1820, this classic antebellum house is constructed of rock and finished in stucco. Originally the entrance faced onto the old Staunton-to-Parkersburg Turnpike. The portico facing US250 was added later, presumably to provide a grand entrance with access to the new road.